

Leave XM alone. We are paying for this service so we obviously like the way it is being operated. Let free enterprise keep doing what it does best without government intervention.